Sarma

The queen of winter – sarma – is a very common dish in Croatia. It can be described as a stuffed cabbage roll filled with minced meat and usually rice. Our mothers and grandmothers have traditionally made sarma every winter, and we cannot imagine Christmas without it. The filling can vary, but one thing is sure: it is very, very tasty! You cannot go home before trying it. Try the best sarma at:

Stari fijaker 900, 1
Mesnička ulica 6.

Mulled wine

Autumn and winter have one specialty – mulled wine. It is impossible to imagine the Christmas Market without a good cup of mulled wine. The best one is made from wine, clove, sugar, cinnamon and dehydrated orange slices. It is very tasty and it will keep you warm in cold winter days. The best thing – it is homemade, from high-quality wine, with local spices. When you are outside, grab one cup, heat your belly and enjoy. Don't miss the best one this season at:

Buzz Bar, 2
Preradovićevea 30.

Turkey with Pasta Tatters

The perfect picture of family reunions: everyone is together, children are running around singing carols, and there is a turkey on the table. Except for the best ice cream and cakes in the city, you can also try great homemade hot chocolate or mulled wine with aromatic spices. This will keep you warm and satisfied in these cold, winter days. All things that make us happy, squeezed in one place. Enjoy!

The meals are delicious, made from fresh fish from the Adriatic Sea, and very healthy. Some of the best recommendations are: Adriatic tuna carpaccio, black risotto, fresh shrimps and squids, various fish fillets and salads, and much more. These are very flavorful and light dishes. It is a true sign of Croatian hospitality. However, this is an alcoholic drink, made from fruits and cooked for many hours. It has many varieties, so you can choose what you prefer.
